

MORNING APPEAL

TUESDAY.....JULY 18

L. P. Fisher, newspapers advertising agents, 21 Merchants' Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. This paper is kept on file in his office.

RETALIATORY MEASURES.

The Colorado people have gone into the silver fight in dead earnest, and they follow up every advantage. They now propose to withdraw their entire trade from New York and transfer it to New Orleans.

This is the true business. Such a deal would link the West and South, who have been the most injured by monometalists, with the chains of commercial reciprocity.

It is argued that New Orleans is much nearer to the Rocky mountain States than is either New York, Boston or Philadelphia; that it is a seaport centrally located, from which can be furnished every article needed by the West, upon terms equally advantageous with those at present obtained. Millions of dollars are sent annually from the Rocky mountain region to the three cities named for merchandise of all kinds.

It is believed that by diverting this gigantic volume of trade from the accustomed channels the eyes of the Eastern enemies of silver will be opened, and their assistance may be enlisted. Men of influence are engaged in formulating a plan for this great mass meeting, and the probabilities are that it will soon be called. That a majority of the people of Colorado and her sister States can be got together there is little doubt, and some such plan as that above outlined will be formulated and adopted.

Nevada ought to be ready to stand pat on such a combination and the sooner we get about it the better.

DE YOUNG FOR SENATOR.

It is generally believed that M. H. De Young will succeed Stanford as U. S. Senator, by the appointment of Gov. Markham.

Of course this will raise a loud howl among De Young's enemies, for he has a lot of them, but the abuse will fall upon a man who is an out and out champion for silver and no man could be more satisfactory to Nevada on this score than he.

He has wheeled his paper in line for silver and ever since the agitation started the San Francisco Chronicle has been an able and persistent advocate of free coinage.

Stanford was a free coinage man and it is proper that his successor should be one. While Stanford always voted for the white metal, he was not as live and energetic a man as De Young, who has a newspaper in which he can advocate his views and fight for the West. Markham shows great magnanimity in recognizing De Young's claims, considering that they were not political friends.

An Explanation.

In the Associate Press reports of the silver meeting telegraphed from this city the following clause appears as one of the resolutions adopted by the meeting:

Resolved, That we forswear allegiance to any party which does not stand squarely on the platform of free coinage in the ratio above mentioned.

This resolution was adopted by the committee but just before the meeting it was withdrawn by the committee because the meeting had been advertised as non-partisan, and it was held that such a resolution might be considered as a trick to whip members of the old parties into line. It was decided to have the meeting such a one as members of all parties could attend, with nothing to tie them up or to prevent absolute freedom of political action.

The resolutions were set up in the APPEAL office before the meeting, and the Associate Press reporter sent the resolutions as originally printed, not knowing that a change had been made.

A Paris editor was recently blackmailed out of sixteen million francs, because somebody found he had improper relations with three of his female contributors. What he was doing with the literary ladies can be at least surmised, but what he was doing with 16,000,000 francs passes our comprehension.

The last spike of the Donner & Tahoe railroad was driven on Wednesday last.
